MY TEACHER
The name of my teacher is Ms. Comfort Drafor. She is 25 years old. She is fair in complexion. I like my teacher because she is kind and love all of us in the class and we understand her when she is teaching.

GIN GEORGE - CLASS ONE

MY SCHOOL
The name of my school is Katapor M/A Primary. It has eight classrooms, two for KG and six for primary with one office. My school has thirteen teachers and out of the thirteen one of them is the headteacher.

HUTOR LETICIA - CLASS ONE

MY MOTHER
The name of my mother is Elizabeth Mensah. She is 44 years old. She lives at Faase. She is fair and tall. I like my mother because she is kind to me and loves me.

MENSAH FRANCISCA - CLASS ONE

MY LIBRARY ACTIVITY
Let us have fun in the library. How many story books have you read in the library this year? Well, this time around, we are not going to read story books in the library; we will do something called research. Your teacher will explain what a research is; we are going to perform a research on plants. This is how we will go about it; we have to look for books in science that have plants in it and look for the explanations that they have give on plants. Don’t you see the fun in researching in the library?

MAKAFUI KUJO - CLASS THREE

MY PET
The name of my pet is Blackie. It is a little black cat. Blackie is a very smart and clever cat, who likes to play with me and other little kids. Blackie always stays in the room and sleeps on the sofa. Anytime I sleep on the sofa, Blackie will also come and sleep on it with me. Sometimes it tries to catch my legs and fingers, and always follow me wherever I go.

MAVIS GBI – CLASS 3

FOOTBALL FUN
Boys and girls were playing football. It was fun! Kwame thought his team would win. Abena thought her team would win. The girls scored the first goal. Then Abena kicked the ball to Mansa. Mansa kicked the ball hard. The ball flew towards the net but the goalkeeper, Kojo, caught the ball. Kojo threw the ball to Kwame. Kwame kicked the ball hard. He scored a goal! The game ended. Nobody won but everyone had fun!

PEACE SOGAH - CLASS THREE

I’M A LITTLE MOSQUITO
I’m a little mosquito, green or tan.
I hatched from an egg. I live in a can.
I am very hungry. I want something to eat.
Look! My meal walks down the street!
I’m a little mosquito, green or tan.
Yesterday you saw me coming and you ran.

DEBRAH MINTAH - CLASS THREE
MY HELP FOR THE FAMILY
I love my family! I live with my sister, my Mama and my Papa. I like to help my family. I help my sister, Mary, wash clothes and Mama to sweep the floor. I also help Papa to clean the water for drinking. My family loves to get my help and I love helping my family.

FORTUNE GIDIMADZOE - CLASS THREE

MY FAVORITE FOOD
My favorite food is rice and stew with chicken. Rice is first prepared before eating. After the preparation of the rice it is than taken with stew and meat. Saucepan is first put on fire. Water is poured in it and covered to boil after five minutes salt is put in the water and again covered. After some time you see to it that there is no water in the rice and the rice becomes ready for consumption. To prepare the stew you put a saucepan on fire with oil and sliced onion in it. You wait for the sliced onion to be well fried and then add pepper and tomatoes either sliced or blended. You wait for it to simmer and add your spices needed. Now to the chicken. Boil the chicken with grounded onion, ginger and garlic. When it is well cooked fry it in oil. Remove when its golden brown. The food I like best which is rice and stew with chicken is easy to prepare and it doesn't take much time to do so.

ERNESTINA KWAKYE - CLASS FOUR

THE UNLUCKY DAY
Once upon a time there were three boys named Ali, Kwadjo and Isaka. One day, on Ali’s return from the farm with his father, he saw a coconut tree and said to himself “I must get this coconut from the tree for us on Monday”. On Sunday it rained heavily such that the stem of the trees were not hard and strong. Then he told his friends to wait for him on Monday. On Monday his father did not allow him to go out but a time came that his father sent him to buy something for him. He run to meet his friends and off they went. When they reached where the coconut tree was, Ali climbed the tree and was soon throwing down the coconuts whiles the others picked them into a bag. Suddenly the tree fell and Ali’s leg hit a stone. The friends thought of what to say to the parents, then they lied and the parents took him to the hospital. The happy day turned into an unlucky day for Ali.

SARA TETTERH - CLASS FOUR

THE THREE FRIENDS
There lived three friends named Big Stomach, Big Head and Long Leg. These friends decided to go to the farm one day. On the way, they saw a pawpaw three and decided to pluck some. Big stomach climbed and ate all that he plucked and burst his stomach. Big head decided to climb but fell and died. Long leg decided to run home and inform their people but he also broke his leg and died.

BOAME EUNICE - CLASS FIVE

MY TOWN
Katapor is the name of my town. It is a small town in Ga West in the greater Accra region of Ghana. My town has a population of about six hundred. There are about four hundred houses built with mud and roofed with iron sheets while two hundred houses are built with mud but roofed with thatch. Seventy percent of the people living in my town are engaged in farming while thirty percent crack stone. The most common food crops grown by the farmers are maize, cassava and plantain. However the food crops grown by the farmers are on small scale. There is only one basic school in my town, which was built by the world vision. My town is always quiet during day time but noisy in the evening. The food my people enjoy is akple with okro soup. I like my town because the people are hard working and honest.

ELISHA CUDJOE TEI - CLASS FIVE
THE RESULT OF DISOBEDIENCE
There was a girl with the name Donkoh who lived in a village called Papa village. At the age of 15 she had refused to take advice from anyone. She thought she was right in everything she does and because of this she hardly stayed at home. At the age of seventeen she was in dirty relationship with boys in the village. People talked to her about the bad behavior in the village but all yielded nothing. As time went by she grew up and got a handsome and rich young man who married her. There was so much money. Because of this Donkoh was very happy to be in that house. Unfortunately for Donkoh she did not know how to do house chores. Because of this she was sacked from the husband’s house and now Donkoh realized how stupid she was.

CHARLOTTE ADOGO - CLASS SIX.

THE BURNING SEA
There lived a boy called Kofi. One day he went fishing with his father. This was what happened between the boy and his father. Kofi: "father the sea is boiling." Because the father was ignorant about the scene he called the fire service to come and protect the fishes from dying.

EMMANUEL DAWUSU - CLASS SIX

THE WISEST LITTLE ANT
Once upon a time, there lived a little ant and her friends. One day, the little ant was playing with her friends in a big gutter. She looked into the sky and saw that it was cloudy. The little ant told her friends that it was going to rain so all of them should run to their homes. Her friends did not listen to her advice, so she left them and went home alone to her mother. It wasn't long before the rain started. It fell so heavy that it washed the other little ants away and they all died. Learn to listen to good advice.

EMMANUELLA YEVU - CLASS SIX

PATIENCE IS ONE OF THE MAJOR KEYS IN LIFE
Once upon a time, there lived a hunter and his wife. Unfortunately they were not having children but praying and hoping that one day God would give them children. But with them was a dog named “mempemehuasem". They later had a child and she was named "Gift of God. It was not long before the mother died leaving behind the husband, the child and the dog. Two days later hunter told the dog to look after the baby for he was going hunting. When the man left, the dog saw a big python coming towards them and it ran quickly and put the baby on their building and came back to fight the python until the dog killed the python and ate it. After eating the python, there was blood on its body. When the hunter walked in and he had looked everywhere but could not see the baby but rather the blood all over the dog, he assumed that the dog might have ate the baby. He raised his gun and killed the dog. Later in the evening, the baby started crying and he went for the baby. He was very sorry for his conduct but it was too late the dog was dead and gone. In everything we do we should exercise some amount of patience.

GABRIEL K. W. ABORDZ - CLASS SIX

THE SUN OR THE MOON
Two young boys were on their way to school one early morning. Along the way they stopped to watch a bird flying. After that scene, one boy said “look the moon is rising this morning”. The other boy disagreed and he also said it was the sun. They continued the argument until they met a well dressed gentleman who worsened the case the more. After greeting the man they quickly asked whether it was the moon or the sun. The gentleman softly said “Boys I do not know because I am not from this village”. He told them to look for someone who lived in that village for clarity of doubt.

PRECIOUS ABORDZI - CLASS SIX
WHO'S MISTAKE
An American man with the name Papa Boltzmann finally decided to visit his fiancée in Ghana, precisely Kumasi. The following day the lady wanted the husband to have a taste of her traditional food which is fufu. As a novice as the man was how fufu is pounded, the lady told the man to use pestle to hit where ever she would put the cassava. Along the line, the lady bit some of the cassava and quickly Papa Boltzmann hit the mouth with pestle. The lady screamed and people came to her rescue. When Papa Boltzmann was asked what happened, he told the people that she had instructed him to hit where ever she would put the cassava because that is how fufu is pounded in Ghana.

AKU GLIFOLI - CLASS SIX

WHAT A SURPRISE
One evening just before sunset a man and his wife were walking along a narrow path. There were thick grasses and bushes at both sides of the path. It was known that there were dangerous snakes in the district. In fact, on the previous day a large snake had been killed just a few yards from where they were walking. The path was so narrow that it was difficult for two people to walk side-by-side. The husband led the way and his wife followed close behind. They had almost reached home when the husband suddenly jumped high in the air. His wife was surprised by his action and thought he had seen a snake and quickly she also jumped. Amazingly she jumped higher than her husband. She saw no snake and asked the husband, “Husband, why did you do that?” Her husband looked around with a smile and said “for exercise”.

MONICA TETTEH - CLASS SIX